Full job description

Your new company

Our client is a commercial fabrications and glazing company based in the inner northern suburbs of Melbourne.

They have a great reputation in the industry for delivering high quality window & cladding packages for commercial retail, offices, aged cares & residential homes.

Your new role

Key responsibilities to include;

- Cutting and processing of aluminium
- Framing and glazing based on different job specifications
- May need to process extrusions for locking mechanisms & rail systems
- You will need to work from technical drawings

What you'll need to succeed

Experience in commercial window fabrication is a must as you will hit the ground running.

You must also be comfortable using heavy machinery and power tools. A good attitude and the ability to work autonomously will also be highly regarded.

What you'll get in return

In return for your commitment and hard work:

- HAYS pay above award rates and have a high potential for overtime.
- Full time positions on offer with a view to go permanent for the right candidate.
